

What I love about being a Military child.

New Places all around,
Flying on a plane far above the ground,
New friends as far as I can see,
What a fun new place to be.

Although moving isn't easy,
And although flying makes me queasy,
I get to have new adventures,
More new places to venture!

When my parent leaves for deployment it can be tough,
Sometimes I feel like I've had enough,
But even when we do have to part,
They're always still there in my heart.

You'll never know where you go next,
And sometimes you'll have to communicate through text,
But I know one thing is for sure,
My family's with me no matter the turn.
