

TO BE a military Kid

Being a military kid is great

You never see any hate

We have such a wonderful community

And so many awesome opportunities

So many states and so many countries

All branching off like a Tree

Some protecting the sea

Others watching the sky

Some get to fly up so high

Protecting the Country and all of our allies

Navy, Army, Marines, and more

All have the same wonderful core.

I am here with one thing to say I will always be an honorary Military child. Yay!!
