

Leadership in America

An Exclusive Invitation to a Leadership in America Program

The Leadership in America series, sponsored by the Virginia War Memorial Foundation, focuses on the initiatives that have made the United States a world superpower by addressing topics such as military readiness, economic strength, history, health and technological advances, and cultural influence.

FILM PREMIERE AND VETERAN PANEL

RSVP

Please respond to Annie Warman
by October 13.
(540) 808-6410 or awarman@
vawarmemorial.org

One Week in October

40 Years Since Beirut and Grenada

Wednesday, October 25, 2023

6:00 p.m. Program begins

Reception following program

Virginia War Memorial

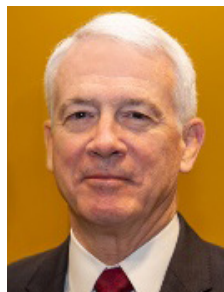

621 South Belvidere Street

Richmond, Virginia 23220

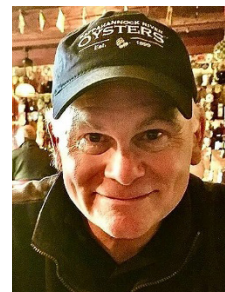

Free and ample parking

ON THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY of the U.S. Invasion of Grenada, the Virginia War Memorial will host a special event to examine the history of that campaign, and to remember the horrific attack on the Marine Corps Barracks in Beirut, just two days prior.

A premiere showing of One Week in October, a documentary produced with Blue Ridge PBS that shares the experiences of Virginian veterans of the campaigns in Beirut and Grenada, will be followed by a panel discussion with three of those veterans:

Mike Dick, Colonel
U.S. Marine Corps (Ret.)
Chairman,
Virginia Board
of Veteran Services

John E. Holloway
U.S. Marine Corps
Author of
Apricots: A War Novel

Theodore Knight,
Sergeant Major
U.S. Army (Ret.)
Deputy Sheriff,
Chesterfield County